Lorelle, Pinot Noir Rosé

Willamette Valley, Oregon

This wine is bright & fresh with aromas of strawberry cream, white peach, and raspberry. Soft & lively on the palate with a grapefruit-citrus accent carrying away the refreshing finish.

$10.50

2016 Teutonic Wine Company, Pinot Gris

Crow Valley Vineyard, Willamette Valley, Oregon

We love the fruit that comes from the 35-year-old vines at Crow Valley Vineyard. This Pinot Gris is crisp & refreshing with fine mineral flavors that the vines absorb from the deeply established roots. Golden pale in color with red apple, lime, and lemon zest on the nose.

$21.99

2014 Chehalem, Grüner Veltliner

Ribbon Ridge, Oregon

This wine has opening aromatics of sage, lemongrass, artichoke flower, lemon curd, and fresh-cut grass. The palate is luscious and texturally richer than a cooler vintage may show, with cream soda and quince, white nectarines, and a round fleshiness that arises from some neutral barrel time and lees stirring.

$19.99

2015 Craftsman, Pinot Noir

Willamette Valley, Oregon

This Pinot is not trying to be big & beefy. Layered in oak and high in alcohol, it has a laser beam of cherry and blackberry fruit and a medium to light body that's perfect for any springtime meal.

$19.50

2014 WillaKenzie Estate, Pinot Meunier

Yamhill-Carlton, Oregon

Aromas of black tea leaf, cassis, plum, and white pepper can be found on the nose of this wine. It is medium-bodied with flavors of strawberry and toffee on the palate. It has a smooth mid-palate and a touch of toast & smoke in the long round finish.

$31.99

2013 Angela Estate, Pinot Noir

Yamhill-Carlton, Oregon

This wine is estate grown and is tight & focused. It has tangy raspberry fruit that touches on black cherry & is vivid and penetrating. It needs plenty of time to breathe and as it does, it reveals subtle layers of mocha and caramel.

$31.99
