2015 Pigro, Pinot Grigio

Trentino, Italy

This Pinot Grigio is tank-fermented at a cool temperature for freshness. It opens with bright apple & grapefruit/citrus notes carried on in a crispy, refreshing body. It's made for early drinking.

$13.75

2015 Domaine Léon Boesch, Edelzwicker

Alsace, France

This is an 11th generation biodynamic estate. The style is very dry, yet full of ripe fruit and round texture. The fun Edelzwicker blends Sylvaner and Pinot Blanc with Pinot Gris and Muscat. This wine has flavors of floral, mineral, juicy orange, papaya, mango, and star fruit with spicy undertones.

2015 Alianca, Vinho Verde

Minho, Portugal

The Vinho Verde is a unique product, blending of aroma and petillance that makes it one of the most delicious natural beverages. It is a highly regarded wine, especially for summertime drinking. It has a fruity fragrance with smooth marks of tropical fruits. It's slightly acidic, but fresh on the mouth & the end is smoothly sweet.

2016 Spy Valley, Sauvignon Blanc

Marlborough, New Zealand

Wine Enthusiast, 90 points! "With only 13% ABV, this is remarkably full in body and rich in texture, with hints of smoke highlighting citrus & stone fruit. The finish is particularly notable for its fine chalk dust and silk feel."

2014 Varvaglione, Primitivo Del Salento 12 e Mezzo

Puglia, Italy

Pleasing aroma of ripe blackberry, black cherry, plums, cola, cocoa, and vanilla. The wine tastes rich and luscious with lots of sweet & ripe dark fruit, drenched in chocolate and vanilla. It also features some nicely integrated smoky, peppery spice. This is a great wine for fans of big, tasty Zinfandels.

$12.97

2013 Cana's Feast, Two Rivers Bordeaux Blend

Columbia Valley, WA

Plum and cassis balanced with herbaceous bliss and a subtle barrel sweetness of vanilla and butterscotch. Red & black fruits, graphite, white pepper, and a savory umami coat the palate. Because of the combination of these varietals, the finish is structured.

$16.50

2014 Charles Smith, Casa Smith Barbera

Wahluke Slope, WA

Harmonious is the first word that comes to mind for this wine. It has a beautiful, deep color, that's silky & plush on the palate. Dark cherry, dried sage, black raspberries, mineral-driven and earthbound.

$21.50

2014 Tierra Divina Vineyards, Reds

Lodi, California

Aromas are rich with ripe berry fruits, chocolate-covered raisins, and toasty vanilla. Full-bodied and full-flavored, the palate is juicy & ripe with spiced red fruits, clove, cinnamon, and fig complemented by well-integrated tannins on a medium-plus frame.

$12.97

2015 Alder Ridge, Six Prong Cabernet Sauvignon

Horse Heaven Hills, WA

This wine is a Cabernet & Syrah blend, with a ripe and expressive style. Aromas and flavors of juicy black cherry and red currants carry through the palate with full body, finishing with a persistent, almost sweet fruit finish with hints of herbal, clove-filled oak notes.
