

2014 Azul y Garanza Tempranillo

Navarre, Spain

Bright aromatics of red cherries and raspberries give way to copious amounts of strawberry and hints of cedar on the palate. Fresh, dry, and delicious, this wine makes the case for "bigger is better", at least in terms of volume – this is a litre bottle!

2014 Birgit and Katrin's Blaufranker

Burgenland, Austria

A little bit like Gamay & a little bit like Cab Franc, Blaufränkisch is a site-expressive noble sort of grape capable of "profundity" and fun. Fruity, spicy, dry, and complex.

$16.99

Casa Bianchi, New Age White Blend

Mendoza, Argentina

Made up of 90% Torrontes and 10% Sauvignon Blanc, it's finished at 8.5% alcohol. Fragrant tropical aromas lead to a fizzy, medium-sweet wine that is a refreshing quaffer for a hot day.

NV Lila, Sparkling

Italy

Aromas of fresh peaches and citrus fruit are balanced by hints of orange peel and honeysuckle. Take a sip and you'll experience a shower of refreshing, foamy bubbles followed by a mildly creamy finish. Pop it open with slices of melon and prosciutto, fresh sushi, or crispy fried chicken.

$3.25 single, $13.25 4pk

NV Begonia, Sangria, Single

Spain

Begonia is a premium sangria fashioned to communicate the bright orange citrus flavors of the Mediterranean. All of its ingredients are natural and of the highest quality. It exhibits bright citrus aromas and fresh red berry flavors. Enjoy it chilled, poured over ice, and/or garnished with fruit.

$3.25 single, $14.97 4pk

2016 Tangent, Rosé

Edna Valley, California

The Pinot Noir brings a salmon nuance while the hints of Syrah and Grenache add a cherry hue to the Rosé. Albariño delivers rose petal, banana, apple, and pear, while the Viognier contributes floral & subtle notes of tropical fruits.

2015 Viña Borgia, Garnacha

Campo de Borja, Spain

From the heart of Aragon, birthplace of Garnacha, comes Viña Borgia. The wine is a perfect example of the varietal characteristics: dark cherries and blueberries mingle on the palate and are accented by light peppery notes. Fresh, bright flavors are balanced by a fine structure and long finish.

$23.25

2016 Vandori, Pinot Grigio

delle Venezie, Italy

This delicious Pinot Grigio shows a whisper of honeyed pear on the nose, with just a touch of lemon rind added to round out the palate.
