

2015 Lingua Franca, Avni Pinot Noir

Eola-Amity Hills, Oregon

Avni Pinot Noir reflects the complex flavor profile of Eola-Amity Hills fruit, born of rocky & volcanic soils on the hillside vineyards of the Willamette Valley. The wine is medium-bodied but offers surprising depth & structure. Floral, smoky, mineral, with red cherry accents. Black plum fruit tones meld into a long & silky finish.

2014 Woodward Canyon, Artist Series Cabernet Sauvignon

Columbia Valley, Washington

Fruit for this wine comes from top sites: Champoux, Sagemoor, Woodward Canyon Estate, and Summit View Vineyards. It brings classic Cabernet Sauvignon aromas of black currant, black cherry and herbs along with generous barrel spices. The black fruit & coffee flavors are lush and full, bringing a real sense of hedonism and delight.

2013 Pamplin Family, JRG Red Wine

Columbia Valley, Washington

Cabernet Sauvignon makes up three-quarters of this blend with the balance of Merlot and Malbec. Coming from a "who's who" of vineyards that includes Klipsun, Canoe Ridge, Seven Hills, and Alder Ridge, it displays aromas of toasty spices, graphite, fresh herb, and black currant. The dark fruit flavors are polished to a fine sheen, showing hang time on the finish.

2016 James Rahn, Gamay Noir

Columbia Valley, Washington

This vibrant, cherry-fruited, mineral-laced Gamay has a lot going for it. There is also a firm tannic structure to the wine, making it a good candidate for medium term aging. The wine is aged in neutral oak and leaves no overt wood footprint.

2015 Eyrie, Original Vines Pinot Gris

Dundee Hills, Oregon

Planted in 1965, these vines are the oldest examples of this variety in the country. Jason Lett showcases this special fruit by making a natural wine with no sulfites added and no cold stabilization. The crisp apple flavors are forward, the color a light gold, the balance spot on, and the finish polished.

2016 Amity Vineyards, White Pinot Noir

Willamette Valley, Oregon

Amity Vineyards has been producing organic wines since it was founded in 1974. They create many wines, but they're most known for their Pinot Noir. So, why make a white one? Because it's awesome! The color of the 2015 White Pinot Noir is a light copper yellow. The nose & palate are bright and lively with fresh lemon juice, cantaloupe, tart red berries, and white flowers.

2015 Montinore, L'Orange Pinot Gris

Willamette Valley, Oregon

This wine was crafted in a corner of the winery called "The Nursery," a collection of vessels holding small, carefully tended white wines. The L'Orange included Pinot Gris fermented on its skins in barrels and amphora (clay pots). Shimmering coral in the glass, this thought-provoking wine presents with a baking spice infused nose, uniting persimmon, pink grapefruit and honeysuckle.

2014 Sixto, Uncovered Chardonnay

Washington

This Chardonnay was brought up in neutral French oak and spent 15 months on lees prior to bottling. This gorgeous wine has plenty of apple, white flower, and toasty notes and a ripe, rounded style on the palate. Sixto is made by the team at Charles Smith, with Brennon Leighton taking the lead role.

$35.97

2014 Alexana, Chardonnay

Willamette Valley, Oregon

The Chardonnay is double-hand sorted, whole cluster pressed and fermented for 21-28 days. Once fermentation is complete, the juice is then aged for 10 months in a combination of stainless steel and oak. It's integrated, showing notes of citrus, minerality & vanilla with exceptional balance and aging potential.

2015 Johan Vineyards, Grüner Veltliner

Willamette Valley, Oregon

This Grüner is made entirely from estate-grown grapes. The grapes were crushed and de-stemmed before given a four-day cold soak prior to pressing. Johan Vineyards is among the cooler sites in the area allowing the fruit to retain good acidity through the growing season. The result is a very juicy, fuller-bodied wine with mature flavors and softer tannins.
