

2015 Sequitur, Pinot Noir

Ribbon Ridge, Oregon

Parker 94 points! Pale to medium ruby-purple in color, the 2015 Sequitur Pinot Noir has a very provocative nose of Bing cherries and cranberries over a core of red roses, yeast extract and underbrush. Medium-bodied, with wonderful energy and freshness, it has a lively backbone and long finish paved with very fine, ripe tannins.

2015 Sequitur, Chardonnay

Ribbon Ridge, Oregon

Parker 94+ points! The 2015 Sequitur Chardonnay delivers toasted almonds, baker's yeast, fresh ginger, and coriander seed on the nose with a core of grapefruit, white peaches and spiced apples. Light to medium-bodied, it gives a great intensity of savory flavor layers intermingled with stone fruit and citrus notions, finishing long with great freshness and mineral notes.

2015 Beaux Frères, Pinot Noir

Willamette Valley, Oregon

Wine Spectator 92 points! Rich and open-knit, yet well-structured, with expressive violet and blueberry aromas and layered dark plum, black tea and spice flavors that glide toward refined tannins.

2011 Horsetail, Cabernet

Napa Valley, California

This wine possesses true regional, vintage and varietal character, making it both a crowd-pleasing yet sophisticated Napa Cabernet. Sourced from two exceptional vineyard sites: Sleeping Lady Winery in Yountville and Lisa Chu Vineyard in Mt. Veeder. The wine is showing elegant weight on the palate with an even dance between black fruit and licorice on the finish.

2015 Horsetail, Pinot Noir

Willamette Valley, Oregon

The Horsetail blend is designed to show round, supple tannins and primary fruit right out of release. It should develop for a minimum of 2 years but often not more than 5 years due to its innately lighter structure.

$27.99

2015 Coattails, Pinot Noir

Willamette Valley, Oregon

This wine is driven by equal proportions of dark fruit and spice layered with a core of slate-like minerality. On the palate it's marked by a middle-of-the-pack weightiness, which will develop for a respectable 10-15 year timespan underneath its solid, fresh, and natural acid profile.

$68.25

2015 Maison Roy & Fils, Chardonnay

Willamette Valley, Oregon

This wine shows a very fresh aromatic expression of quince paste, ripe pear, lemon peel, and hint of flint. On the palate the wine strikes a nice balance of lime, oyster-like minerality, and finishes very soft and delicate.

$46.25

2015 Maison Roy & Fils, Petite Incline

Willamette Valley, Oregon

The Petite Incline is a selection of barrels that show the earliest accessibility and allow for prime drinking on release. The color is lighter, the tannins are soft, and the wine is quite floral. The aromatics present red berries, mint, and dried herbs while the palate shows ripe red fruit and a round, lighthearted profile.

2012 Etzel Brothers, Cabernet Sauvignon

Yountville, California

The Sleeping Lady Vineyard is a true west Yountville foothill site with well-drained rocky loam soils. The 2012 vintage supported balanced ripeness providing a tremendous black ink color profile. The aroma of the 2012 Sleeping Lady is of cassis, blue and black fruit, and camphor. The palate is saturated with ripe tannin and bright acid which should age very well.
